2. Please remember to have your child wash their hands with SOAP & WATER when they enter school.
3. Remember your child needs a change of clothes in their back pack, including underwear, socks, shirt and pants. With the weather changing please make sure you have an appropriate clothing change for the season.

Around the School.....

When you arrive at school everyday please check "Harold" the lime green crossing guard. Located in front of the school. He will have either a red or green scarf on. The colors mean:
RED- we WILL NOT go outside that day.
GREEN- we WILL go outside

Next week you will find a blue recycling bag hanging on your hook. These bags were donated to us by Kirstyn Taylor from Accelerated Rehabilitation Center in Barrington. (THANK YOU) These bags should be used to carry your snow clothing and boots to school everyday. Please make sure that you LABEL EVERYTHING!!!

SPOTS are filling fast for our Morning Out days on Friday, December 5 & 12. Please see the office to sign up. The cost is $20 a day and the hours are 9:00am-1:00pm.

The school has been invited to sing at the 10:30am service on Sunday, December 14th. After the church service the school will be providing cupcakes to celebrate Jesus' Birthday. We look forward to celebrating this joyous time of year with you!

We had an amazing turn out at our Second Annual Trivia Night. A huge thanks to all those who participated and to all our vendors for their wonderful donations!

We look forward to seeing you at the Third Annual Trivia Night.

Registration

Registration for the 2015-2016 school year takes place on Monday, January 12, from 6:00-7:00pm. The doors will open in the Church Narthex at 5:45pm. A registration packet will be coming home with your January calendar. If you have any questions please feel free to stop in ask us.
